

DATA PRIVACY POLICY FOR THE VR4Empathy WEBSITE

TREATMENT AND DATA PROTECTION

By understanding that using your personal data requires your confidence, we follow current regulations and the appropriate treatment and data protection procedures.

We will only use your personal data for the purposes we identify below, following the General Regulation on Data Protection (GDPR) and ensuring the confidentiality and integrity of your personal data.

The Privacy Policy described below establishes how the consortium of the VR4Empathy project treats the personal data of its partners, staff participating in the training courses provided in the framework of the project, external participants in the testing and validation phase of the project, external participants in the public dissemination events of the project, visitors to our website <https://virtualreality4empathy.eu/>.

(+) Who is responsible for the processing of your personal data?

The consortium of the VR4Empathy project is responsible for the processing of the personal data of its partners and visitors who submit a request for contact or participation at activities, events and sessions promoted in the scope of the project, following the terms of the data protection legislation in force in the European Union, the GDPR¹. The consortium of the VR4Empathy project does not share the personal data provided with any other entity.

(+) How is your personal data collected?

We do not collect information from visitors to our site. Personal data will be collected and processed only if you complete:

- the contact request form available on the project website,
- any other forms and formats of data collection available on the project website,
- the registration form for any of the public events promoted by any of the partners of the consortium,
- the participants' signature list when attending any public dissemination event promoted in the framework of the project.

(+) For what purpose and what grounds can your personal data be used?

¹ General Data Protection Regulation, Regulation (EU) 2016/679 [<https://eur-lex.europa.eu/eli/reg/2016/679/oj>].

Your personal data will be collected and used for the specific purposes for which the data are provided namely: for stakeholders' consultations on the appraisal of the VR4Empathy results, on the production of reports to be submitted to the European Commission and/or any of the national funding body of the Erasmus+ programme (European Education and Culture Executive Agency), to send invitations to project's events and to send updates on the progress and results of the project in strict terms that you select in the consent box included in each of the online forms in this website.

Under the data protection legislation in force in the European Union (GRDP) the use of personal data must be justified under at least one legal basis for the processing of personal data. The legal basis applicable to the collection and use of your personal data for purposes described above relating to the VR4Empathy project is your consent.

(+) What is the legal basis for processing personal data?

- When you have given consent to the processing of your personal data (for this purpose you will be presented with a consent form for the use of your data, which consent may subsequently be withdrawn);
- When the treatment is necessary to fulfill the legal obligations to which the Vr4Empathy project is subject;
- When treatment is necessary to achieve a legitimate interest and our reasons for its use prevail over your data protection rights;
- When treatment is necessary for us to testify, exercise, or defend a right in legal proceedings against you, us or a third party.

(+) What personal data can be collected?

The personal data collected may include your name, email address, type of organization of affiliation, country of residence, professional occupation, age, and other information.

(+) How do we maintain the security of your personal data?

We use a variety of security measures, including authentication tools, encryption, and digital certificates to help protect and maintain the security, integrity, and availability of your personal information. Although data transmission over the internet or website cannot guarantee complete security against intrusions, we and our service providers make every effort to implement and maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your personal data under the applicable data protection requirements.

Among others, we have implemented the following:

- Protection of information technology systems through firewalls to prevent unauthorized access to your personal data;
- Continuous monitoring of access to information technology systems to prevent, detect and prevent the misuse of your personal data.

(+) How long do we keep your personal data?

We store your data only for the period in which the purpose for which it was collected is valid. Once the maximum period of conservation has been reached, your personal data will be irrevocably anonymized (anonymized data may be stored) or destroyed safely.

For the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, your personal data will be retained from the collection of your consent, or the last contact made (whichever occurs last) and if, within this period, have not withdrawn their consent.

Your personal data is stored on the protected servers of our suppliers/service providers, being accessed and used exclusively under our policies and standards (or equivalent policies and standards of our suppliers/service providers).

(+) How to change or remove your consent?

At any time, you may change or withdraw your consent, with effect for the future. Upon complete removal of your consent statements, you will no longer be contacted and receive communications for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

(+) What are your rights to data protection and to submit a complaint to the supervisory authority?

If you have any questions regarding our use of your personal data, please contact the project coordinator via the Online Contact Form available on the project website <https://virtualreality4empathy.eu/contact/>.

Subject to certain conditions, you may have the right to request us to:

- Provide you with additional information on how we use your personal information;
- Be provided with a copy of the personal data provided;
- You are provided with the personal data you have provided to another controller at your request;
- Any inaccuracy in the personal data we retain;
- Deleted personal data whose use is no longer legitimate;
- We limit the way we use your personal data until the complaint is investigated.

The exercise of these rights is subject to certain exceptions intended to safeguard the public interest (prevention or detection of crimes) or our interest (maintaining professional secrecy).

If you exercise any of these rights, we will analyze them, and we will respond, within one (1) month.

If you are unsatisfied with our use of your personal data or with our response after exercising any of these rights, following the legislation in force, you are entitled to submit a complaint to the supervisory authority (Comissão Nacional de Protecção de Dados - CNPD).
